Sagem Enters into MPEG-2 License with MPEG LA

Patent Infringement Actions Against Sagem Concluded

DENVER – March 23, 2005 – MPEG LA today announced that Sagem S.A. has become a Licensee to MPEG LA's MPEG-2 Patent Portfolio License and that the patent infringement actions announced in a 3 May 2004 press release (http://www.mpegla.com/news/n\_04-05-03\_sagem.pdf) have concluded.

MPEG LA, LLC

MPEG LA successfully pioneered one-stop technology platform licensing with a portfolio of essential patents for the international digital video compression standard known as MPEG-2. One-stop technology platform licensing enables widespread technological implementation, interoperability and use of fundamental broad-based technologies covered by many patents owned by many patent holders. MPEG LA provides users with fair, reasonable, nondiscriminatory, worldwide access to essential patents from multiple patent holders in a single license as a nonexclusive alternative to negotiating licenses with each of them individually. The MPEG-2 Patent Portfolio License, which includes more than 650 MPEG-2 essential patents owned by 24 licensors in 57 countries, has more than 800 licensees accounting for most MPEG-2 products in the current world market. MPEG LA is not related to any standards agency and is not an affiliate of any patent holder. For more information, please refer to <http://www.mpegla.com>.
